CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE—2005–06 REGULAR SESSION

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 978

Introduced by Assembly Member Sharon Runner
(Principal coauthor: Senator Alquist)

February 18, 2005

An act to add Section 527.10 to the Code of Civil Procedure, to add Sections 6252.5 and 6322.7 to the Family Code, to add Sections 136.3 and 646.91A to the Penal Code, and to add Sections 213.7 and 15657.04 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to protective orders.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 978, as amended, Sharon Runner. Restraining orders: stalking.

Existing law authorizes courts to issue protective orders and emergency protective orders under various circumstances, including cases of domestic violence, stalking, abuse against elder or dependent adults, victim or witness intimidation, and workplace violence. Existing law also authorizes a court to issue an ex parte order prohibiting disclosure of the address or other identifying information of a party, child, parent, guardian, or other caretaker of a child. The willful disobedience of the terms, as written, of a court order or the intentional and knowing violation of a protective order or stay away order issued as specified, is a misdemeanor.

This bill would require a court to order that any party who is enjoined pursuant to the orders described above be prohibited from taking any action to obtain the address or location of a protected party or his or her family members, caretakers, or guardian, unless there is good cause not to make that order. The bill would also require the Judicial Council to promulgate forms necessary to effectuate those provisions.

Because the willful disobedience of the terms as written of a court order, or the intentional and knowing violation of a protective order or a stay away order issued as specified, is a misdemeanor, the bill would create a new crime, thereby imposing a state-mandated local program.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.
State-mandated local program: yes.
